Muhammads house there is clean and cold water They have a big failure will only take the cheese puffs because Muhammad likes them of the the other things are unnecessary & that is because Muhammad's mother offers us snacks. They are good people and love quests. I was on my way to Muhammad's house when I met Nabil Nabil said: Where are you going, O saeed? And I am on my way to your house for studying with you I said You are late and you didn't inform me earlier It's Ok. Why don't you come with me to Muhammads house? Nabil said: Who is this Muhammad I said: You don't know him, He is from eight the class. Muhammad is an intelligent boy He will help us in understanding the lesson and solve the hard question for us. He will welcome you also if Allah wills. He is a good friend of mine. Nabil said: I will

The poet shows his ideas in his poetry According to him the poetry has a particular meaning, thought and the real emotion, and he believed that the singing of the bird enraplices and pleases the mind and the soul of human being with bruth, not by lying or falsehood, and he calls the bied not to follow the whims of the people because there are some people who do not deserve to be called human being, the poet is inspired each other and by the bird and its, shows in his beautiful poetry. Both of them sing and please each other and inspire hope and joy in the soul. The poet yearns for the love of the bird and he is sad.

Explanation The poet reflects in this poem his sad and painful experience. It is the separation of his loved ones and the parting of the people who are very close to him which are caused him to lose confidence in the people. The poet calls the Bird of paradise to reside in his heart that is filled with the garden flowers, the brooks and the trees with long and beautiful branches The atmosphere of the garden, filled with beautiful times produced by the Bird of Paradise The nature has also joined with the birds in singing by their soft rusting of leaves of ties and by the dancing of their branches as well.

IN A RAINY DAY

These days, it is the rainy season here. One working, it started drizzling from early. Then it increased little by little. All the family members woke up one by one. My grandfather woke up all of us at around 4:30 am as usual. After the Morning Prayer, he went out for enjoyment in the garden of the area as usual. The grandfather returned to home before his usual time of coming back. We saw him wet. He is an old and thin man. We ha=heard him coughing and he had a running nose. My mother rushed to him and said,"O Father, you have to change, your clothes quickly and in the meantime, I will prepare for you tea with ginger and honey, without milk. And it is better for you to take it hot and then take rest, "I took a new towel and I gave it to him. The grandfather entered the bathroom and dried his head and body and after that he wore new and thick clothes. My mother came in and in hand was a tray, she poured the tea in the cup and gave it to grandfather. The grandfather sipped the tea. As for me, I sat beside the grandfather and messaged his hands, heads and legs so the grandfather slept in the warmth of the bed.

As for my father he started getting ready to go to his office. He said, "O boys get ready soon, perhaps the school bus will not come today or it will be late because it started raining heavily. I will take you in my car and drop you near the school on the way to my office.

My mother called us from the kitchen saying "the breakfast is ready in the dining table. Come and have your breakfast. And you three (2 brothers, 1 sister) will accompany your father in his car so that he will drop you near the school "after" having breakfast we took our bags and boarded our father car. We found less number of students (male and female and teachers (male and female) in the corridor with the headmaster for Morning Prayer.

After coming back from school we found at our home only our maid. We asked her about others. She said "Grand father's condition became bad at 10 O'clock. We called your father from his office so that he will take him to hospital. So all of them are in the hospital with grandfather. While we were talking the phone bell rang. I picked and received, I heard my mom telling thank god, grandfather is now ok and we are on the way back home. We will reach in half hour if god wills. You have your lunch and take rest. We thanked our god. We love our grandfather too much, but he loves us more.
